SEPTEMBER

I love the hint of Autumn in the morning dew.
I love the fog that hangs over the fishing pond.
I love the flowers of fall, yellows and browns,
Shaded deep reds backed by golden browning leaves.

Serious football games, thermos's filled with hot coffee,
Boots that stomp are all things of October and November
September is a hot dog spread with mustard,
A mosquito on the back of the neck,
Friends who have time to just stand around and talk.

I went to a football game in Slaton, Texas, one Friday night.
It was my first time at a Texas High School Football game.
They are pretty serious about their football.
I sat down and realized I had taken someone's seat.
They asked me to move, but the place was full.
There was no room for me to sit.

So, I stood around and then when everyone was watching the game, I left.

The things I learned that night had nothing to do with the game.

I expected a quite evening, a good Hot Dog, and talk with friends.

I learned the Texas fan's devotion to Football.

I learned what I do when I don't feel welcome.

It doesn't have much to do with September, or Football; but Jesus says, "Come onto me..." And then again, maybe it has everything to do with feeling welcomed.

He is the welcoming one. Probably not so exciting. There may be no band playing, but certainly there is a place to sit down and enjoy all the gifts that we have been given. This is what puts the heart at ease and brings peace to the troubled soul. He has a time and a place for me.

St. Teresa's Prayer

May today there peace within,

May you trust God that you are exactly where you should be.

May you not forget the infinite possibilities that are born of faith.

May you use those gifts that you have received, and pass on the love that has been given to you.....

May you be content knowing that you are a child of God.

Let this presence settle into your bones, and allow your soul the freedom to sing, dance, praise, and love.

It is there for each and everyone of us.
