Resurrection

Some folks have discovered the grave where Jesus, Joseph and Mary were buried. That's what they claim. They are not the first to make the claim. People at the time of Jesus made the claim. "There was no resurrection," they said.

Some folks said the stone needed to be placed on the tomb because the believers would come and steal his body, so they placed a stone on the tomb. Others said it is still not secure, so they placed a Roman guard soldier at the entrance. Oh...who was it that didn't believe Jesus would rise? Seems like the unbelievers were sometimes the ones who wanted to make sure the believers didn't believe.

Belief is a gift of the Holy Spirit. It is the "Holy Spirit who calls, gathers, and enlightens the whole Christian church." Belief doesn't come from arguing, or postulating theorems, but it is a gift of the Holy Spirit, freely given. It is like Christmas.

Resurrection faith is the gift. We know about it through the witness of the Holy Scripture, but we experience it in our daily life as each day we "put off the old man, and put on the new."

Thanks be to God who through our Lord Jesus Christ broke the power of the grave and rose to give each of us new life.

Pastor Paul
