Lenten Reflections

One of the comments made about Generation Y, individuals roughly of college age and younger, is that they are optimistic about the future in general and about their own future specifically. Some have reflected that this might be due, in part, to the fact that they do not remember the era of "mutually insured destruction" (the Cold War) nor a significant downturn in the economy. The question is now that we have signs of a resurgent Russia, what appears to be a long term threat from radical Jihadist movements and an economic recession, will Generation Y retain a hopeful outlook of their future?

A deeper question for Lent is, "what is it that gives you hope?" Given our human condition including our frail bodies that age, break down and eventually perish, the state of the economy and our constant exposure to the presence of powerful forces that want to do our country harm, it would be easy to say that any hope is only a fool's hope. Perhaps this is why we read in God's word that God has chosen foolish things to humble those who claim to be wise. What could be more ridiculous than the notion of an all powerful God suffering and dying on a cross? This is truly foolishness to the wise, the Apostle Paul states, yet it is in the cross that we find hope and the promise of new life, for it is in the cross that we see the heart of God and through the cross we see the empty tomb.

If you are able to attend we will be gathering weekly for a simple supper at 5:00 PM beginning Ash Wednesday, Feb 25 with a short worship service which will follow at 6:00.

Again, if you know of someone who is unable to make it to worship, I would be pleased to visit bringing Holy Communion or in the event of an emergency or hospitalization.

God bless you this Lenten Season,
Bruce Krogstad

Spring is the morning bird song,
Crocuses and Daffodils,
Blossoms blowing in the breeze,
And pies on windowsills.
Spring's a gentle warming,
After the winter's thaw,
It's nature's resurrection,
That leaves us all in awe.
Spring is nature's promise,
Of hope and rebirth,
A time when all the Angels,
Redecorate the Earth.

Make a Good Marriage Great!

No matter how good a marriage is, it can be improved. Even the best marriages can find new meaning and deepened joy on a Lutheran Marriage Encounter weekend, whether married for a short time or for many years.

In a relaxed atmosphere four presenting couples, including a Lutheran clergy couple, give a series of presentations followed by questions the couples discuss in the privacy of their hotel room. There is no counseling and no group sharing. No one tries to change who you are. You'll spend two nights in a comfortable hotel and enjoy five delicious meals from Friday at 7:00 pm to Sunday at 5:00 pm.

The next Lutheran Marriage Encounter Weekends in Minnesota are March 27-29 in Duluth or April 24-26 in Brooklyn Center. Please register a month in advance. For more information, contact Dick & Judy Dehnel at 952-432-3105, Pete & Phyllis McMahan at 763-561-1575 or visit

Many folks want to serve God, but only as advisors.

Some minds are like concrete - thoroughly mixed up and permanently set.

Good Samaritan

A Sunday school teacher was telling her class the story of the Good Samaritan, in which a man was beaten, robbed and left for dead. She described the situation in vivid detail, so her students would catch the drama. Then, she asked the class, "If you saw a person lying on the roadside, all wounded and bleeding, what would you do?" A thoughtful little girl broke the hushed silence, "I think I'd throw up."
