Episcopalians & Lutherans share much in common liturgically. It is important to understand what underpins what Martin Luther and most other theologians considered the greatest season of the church year. The other seasons of the liturgical year are either preludes or postludes to this high water mark of the church year. Everything in the salvation history of the Old and New Testament drives to this conclusion/beginning. In Easter our fear and despair are defeated (in the empty tomb). It is in the resurrection of Christ that we have the guarantee of God's assistance in our overcoming any defeat even the greatest, death itself. The information below is found on the Episcopal Church in America website.

Grace and peace to you and yours this high festal season,

Pastor Bruce

Easter

The feast of Christ's resurrection. According to Bede, the word derives from the Anglo-Saxon spring goddess Eostre. Christians in England applied the word to the principal festival of the church year, both day and season.

1) Easter Day is the annual feast of the resurrection, the pascha or Christian Passover, and the eighth day of cosmic creation. Faith in Jesus' resurrection on the Sunday or third day following his crucifixion is at the heart of Christian belief. Easter sets the experience of springtime next to the ancient stories of deliverance and the proclamation of the risen Christ. In the west, Easter occurs on the first Sunday after the full moon on or after the vernal equinox. Easter always falls between Mar. 22 and Apr. 25 inclusive. Following Jewish custom, the feast begins at sunset on Easter Eve with the Great Vigil of Easter. The Eastern Orthodox Church celebrates Easter on the first Sunday after the Jewish pesach or Passover (which follows the spring full moon). Although the two dates sometimes coincide, the eastern date is often one or more weeks later than the date on which the west celebrates Easter.

2) Easter Season. The feast of Easter is a season of fifty days, from Easter Eve through the Day of Pentecost. From early times the Greek word pentecost (fiftieth day) was used also for the whole Paschal season.

Memorial Day Speaker Terry Teiken

Terry Teiken grew up on a farm outside Ogema, Minnesota. He attended St. Benedict's Mission school and graduated from Waubun High School. Terry planned on joining the Army, but his parents had different plans. He enrolled at Moorhead State. He received his draft notice Christmas Eve 1969. In the first Vietnam draft lottery, his birthdate had been selected #3. Shortly thereafter he found himself on a journey to Vietnam, where he served in an Air Cavalry unit.

Upon completion of his service, he returned to Moorhead State and completed his teaching degree. He taught Business Education at Lake Park, and went on to become the school district's Athletic Director, coaching football and wrestling.

Terry is honored to be with us to tell his story as we celebrate our nation's veterans at the Memorial Day Service on Monday, May 27.

Missing Man Table

As you enter the basement for the potluck lunch, you will find a table set in remembrance of servicemen and women still listed as MIA. This is its meaning:

- ★ The table is round to show our everlasting concern.
- ★ The cloth is white, symbolizing the purity of their motives when they answered the call to serve.
- ★ The single red rose reminds us of their lives and loved ones and friends who keep the faith.
- ★ The yellow ribbon symbolizes our determination to account for them.
- ★ A slice of lemon reminds us of their bitter fate.
- ★ Salt symbolizes our tears.
- ★ The lighted candle reflects our hope for their return.
- ★ The glass is inverted to symbolize their inability to share fellowship with us.
- ★ The chair is empty. They are the missing ...

I Came to Visit You Today

I came to visit you today
To place this flag where you now lay.
Your service, free or on demand,
Is why I can, in freedom, stand.

I came to visit you today
To place this flag where you now lay.
You stood your watch, you did your duty,
You served with honor, a patriot truly.

I came to visit you today
To place this flag where you now lay.
The memory of all that once was you
Still warms the hearts of those you knew.

I came to visit you today
To place this flag where you now lay.
Even if I only know your name,
My respect for you is still the same.

I came to visit you today
To place this flag where you now lay.
To honor and remember what you gave
A grateful nation, this Memorial Day.
